Authentic faith, Welcoming and Engaging

Think of Sacraments. Think of Divine Life.

Sacrament of Baptism. The sacrament through which God, in Jesus Christ, makes us His sons and daughters. To prepare for reception, call Father Edison @ 924-7111.

Sacrament of the Eucharist. The sacrament through which God, like a responsible parent, feeds us, with food from heaven: His Word, and the Body and Blood of Jesus.

- Weekend Masses: Saturday at 4:30 PM, Sunday at 8:30, 10:30 AM and 5 PM. Onsite and livestreaming on YouTube: Saint Patrick's Victor.
- Weekday Masses: Monday-Wednesday, Friday at 8:30 AM. Onsite and live on YouTube: Saint Patrick's Victor.
- For First Holy Communion, call Donna DeJoode at 924-2800 for more info.
- Family members may bring Holy Communion to other family members who are sick and homebound.

Sacrament of Confirmation. The sacrament through which God by the gift of the Holy Spirit strengthens us to give faithful witness to our Catholic Faith. To prepare for reception, call Elizabeth Johnston @ 924-2800.

- Children, older than 7 y/o, and adults who needs to be baptized, receive Communion and/or be Confirmed, call Deacon John @ 924-7111.

Sacrament of Reconciliation. The sacrament through which God's mercy and love, justice and truth heals the wound of human sin. Generally offered an hour before each Mass. Please give the priest fifteen minutes before Mass to prepare for Mass.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. The sacrament through which Jesus continues to heal the sick among us. Anointing is offered at each Mass on the first weekend of the month. Or call Fr. Edison @ 924-7111 to schedule an anointing.

Sacrament of Marriage. The sacrament through which God calls a man and woman to become visible signs of His Love. Call Fr. Edison or Deacon John @ 924-7111 for more info.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. The sacrament through which the mission Jesus entrusted to the apostles is continued in the Church. To learn more about vocations to the ordained ministry, please call Fr. Edison or Deacon John @ 924-7111.

Never miss an opportunity to celebrate a sacrament.

Year of the Sacraments
Christ, Catechesis, Celebration

XII. Advancing the Kingdom of God

Parents and godparents, this light is entrusted to you to be kept burning brightly, so that your children, enlightened by Christ, may walk always as children of the light and, persevering in the faith, may run to meet the Lord when he comes with all the Saints in the heavenly court.

In Baptism, Jesus shared his light with us that we may become his bright light for others.

Now more than ever, every Baptized must live a life centered on Jesus Christ. It is only a life focused on Jesus that will allow us to live out our Baptismal call daily. In a society that is becoming more secular, we cannot anymore just plug-in to the society and be passively nurtured in the Catholic faith. We need to create Catholic oases amid the secular desert, to which we must intentionally go and be refreshed, to strengthen our faith and to nurture the faith of our children.

- Encounter Jesus Christ, first and foremost. Let this happen through daily prayer: personal prayer, family prayer, the Mass and the sacraments. It is through a life of prayer, that we nurture a personal relationship with Jesus.
- Know more about Jesus. In Luke 24:27, at Emmaus, Jesus told his disciples that the Scriptures were written referring to him. So read the Scriptures, particularly the Gospels. Allow your knowledge of Jesus to be concrete and truthful. Obey the Word of God precisely because it is of God and not of man.
- Live as a member of the Church of Jesus Christ. Throughout the millennia, how has the Catholic Church sought to live according to the way of Jesus? Not many will have the opportunity to read the vast literature on the history and the life of the Church. The Catechism is an accessible document that combines Scriptures (the Word of God) and Tradition (the Life of the Church), and it expresses the Life of the Church based on the Word of God. The four sections of the Catechism should guide our way through this wonderful document: (i) the profession of faith - what we believe as Catholics, (ii) the celebration of the Christian Mystery - living the life of Jesus through the liturgy and the sacraments, (iii) the Ten Commandments - living the moral life, and (iv) the Lord's Prayer - the life of Christian prayer.

Our Parish At Prayer

Daily 3 PM Parish Prayer. Join us every day in praying a "Hail Mary" at 3 PM. Set your alarm at 3 PM, and when you hear it, pause for a moment, remember our parish, and together let us be connected with one another in prayer.

Looking for prayers to use at our Daily 3 PM Parish Prayer? Check out the Prayer Icon on our parish app. Consider using a new one every month, and encourage children to learn them by heart.

Daily 3 PM Prayer Intentions

Please include any of these intentions at your daily 3 PM prayer:

- In this Year of the Sacraments, for our meaningful and worthy celebrations of the sacraments,
- For our teens in the Confirmation Program and their parents—for the nurturing of their faith,
- For those who are COVID +, and those on quarantine, for their safety and return to good health,
- For parishioners who are dealing with anger and frustration during this time of pandemic,
- For those who have died, including those who passed away due to COVID.

Let us be known by our praying for each other.

Catechism 101

- Since when has the Church administered holy Baptism? (CCC 1226) The Church has administered holy Baptism from the very day of Pentecost.
- Who can receive Baptism? (CCC 1246) Every person not yet baptized can receive Baptism.

- What is the catechumenate? (CCC 1248) The catechumenate is the preparation for Baptism that aims at introducing the candidates into the knowledge of the Liturgy and Faith and the practice of a virtuous life.
- Why do little children have need of Baptism? (CCC 1250) Little children have need of Baptism, because they are: (1) born with a fallen human nature and (2) tainted by original sin.
- Where does the New Testament imply the baptism of infants? (CCC 1252) The New Testament implies the baptism of infants when it reports that whole households received baptism (e.g. Acts 16).

If interested in serving as liturgical minister during the weekend Masses, please give the coordinators a call. See page 5 for contact info.

Instructions for the Weekend Masses

- Sign Up! Signing-up ensures accommodation as well as serves as help as a tracking system. Links are found on the parish website, and on the parish app. No internet or smart phone? Please call the Parish Office at 924-7111 to sign-up. If you fail to sign-up and we are expecting a full-house, you may be asked to wait until signees are seated, and will be admitted only if there is an available seat.
- Be Safe! At all times, please observe: (i) proper wearing of face mask by covering both nose and mouth, (ii) hand sanitizing before entering the premises, and (iii) observing the 6ft social distancing with people not of your household, especially during Holy Communion and Dismissal.
- Watch the Numbers!
  - If signees are mostly in small groups of 1 or 2, we can accommodate ~100 per Mass. If coming as a small group, please occupy the outside section of the pew.
  - If a good number of signees are in groups of 3 or 4, we can accommodate ~140 per Mass. If coming as a bigger group of three or more, please use the inside section of the pew.
- Be Charitable! Consider it an act of charity to occupy the front pews first. You will make it easier for the ushers to locate pews for those who arrive after you.
- Better Stay at Home. If you require for yourself more than 6 feet of social distancing from others, for health reasons, it is better that you stay at home during this time. If you participate in the celebration of Holy Mass via live stream and wish to receive Holy Communion, email Father Edison (fr.edison.tayag@dor.org), to set-up a time when you can come over during the weekday.
- Ushers, Help! With the safety protocols currently in place, it is clear that ushers do play a crucial role at every weekend Mass. We need additional help. If you can assist, please email Father Edison and let him know at which Mass you can help and how often. We are truly grateful to ushers who serve during this time. Also much appreciated are volunteers who help with the camera for live streaming. Thank you for your help!

Did you know that since COVID started,

- We resumed public celebration of the Mass in the parish, with the initial 10 persons, on Pentecost Sunday, the weekend of May 30-31?
- 3138 is the cumulative head count at the weekend Masses (taking head count resumed last September 6)?
- 5 Baptism have been celebrated during weekend Masses?
- 4 Funeral Mass have been celebrated in church?
- The Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation has been consistently celebrated an hour before Mass, in the Family Room?

Saint Patrick's Cookbook

Have you been preparing more meals at home these days, and want to try some new "family heirloom" recipes? The parish will be compiling a parish cookbook using your favorite recipes! If a fun or nostalgic family story pertaining to the recipe comes to mind, please share that as well.

You are welcome to contribute by either dropping the recipe off at the Parish Office, emailing Cathy Fafone at catherine.fafone@dor.org , or by going to the following website: Fundcraft.com and using the Wed ID: 926-20FT. The last day to submit content will be December 31st. If you are using the website to submit, feel free to use the "notes" section of the recipe to add a family story.

The parish cookbook will be published and available for sale in early 2021. All proceeds raised will be contributed to this year's CMA goal.

Changed Forever: The Sacrament of Baptism.

Fr. Mike Schmitz is one of the leading speakers to young people in the Church today. In this presentation, he explains how Christians truly become sons and daughters of God the Father for all eternity through the Sacrament of Baptism. Following the presentation, there is a bonus segment from Fr. Mike that explains the topics of "Infant Baptism" and "No Salvation Outside the Church."

Baptism Instituted

The beginning of Christ's public ministry starts with his Baptism. Then, at the end of his ministry, Christ commands his disciples: "Make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19).

Advent Family Prayer Service

Week 1

The following prayer should be repeated each day during the first week. After the prayer, the family's youngest child lights the first purple candle. (Family members can also take turns lighting and blowing out the candles on each night).

Leader: Heavenly Father, as we begin this Advent, give light to our eyes and open our ears as you did in Baptism; bring peace to our hearts. May the Lord find us watching and waiting in joy when He comes. We pray in Jesus' name.

All: Amen.

Allow the candle to burn during evening meals the first week.

Advent Week 1: Purple Candle

Prayer Garland – Prepare for the 1st week of Advent, which is November 29. Use your packet in your Advent Kit or cut 26 strips of paper. On each strip of paper, write the name of a person or church group. Connect each strip of paper into a chain. Secure each strip to itself with either tape, glue, or staples. Everyday of Advent, tear off a strip and pray for that person or group. Remember your Family Prayer Service!

Desert Days in Advent

This Advent, Notre Dame Retreat House will be offering single day retreats in silence, reflection and prayer. All are invited to join us. There will be four dates available to spend time alone with God in order to prepare our hearts and mind for the Birth of Christ in us. Space is limited, so registration is required.

To address social distancing requirements and needs, at this time we are limiting attendance on each Advent Day to fifteen (15) people. For details, please visit: www.notredameretreat.org, or contact (585) 394-5700 or ndretreat@rochester.rr.com

Christmas Boxes

Thank you so much for your support of this year's St. Patrick's Christmas Food Box Program and your willingness to gift a family. You are providing comfort and hope to local families who may be struggling or facing difficult times this year and through the holiday season.

We ask that you provide all of the items listed on the provided menu, providing a Christmas Dinner for a family of 4 or 5 people. Please donate non-perishable food only. If you wish to add additional non-perishable food items not on the menu, they will be gratefully received.

Pick-Up. The Christmas Boxes, with the menu, will be available for pick-up on the weekend of November 21-22 at the church doors. The boxes will be available at the church doors during weekdays too.

Drop-Off. Your box should be returned to the Parish Center Alcove before or after Mass times on Sunday, December 13th, and the Christmas Baskets will be distributed shortly. To get to the Alcove, please enter through the church door. Please observe the COVID safety protocols: wearing of face mask, hand-sanitizing, and 6ft social distancing.

2020-21 Building Projects

Dear parishioners,

The peace of Christ be with you!

With the replacement of the church boiler, we had completed the last of our 2019-20 building projects. On this third year of our building projects, we had not solicited for donations because we were able to use our budget surplus and some of our stable patrimony.

As we now plan for the 2020-21 building projects, we have on our proposed list the following and the estimate cost:

- Exterior of the Church: $93,290
- Exterior of the Parish Office: $44,140
- Exterior of the Parish Center: $64,127

Of these three projects, the exteriors of the Church and the Parish Office are considered a priority. We currently have $70K in our Building Fund.

Kindly share your thoughts with me, Rich O'Donnell or members of the Finance Council about our capacity to raise $131,557 to tackle all three projects or to raise $67,430 for the church and parish office projects for next year.

We appreciate your input.

Thank you, and God bless you.

- Father Edison

Let there be light…

Christ is Our King; Our Citizenship is in Heaven.

The lost I will seek out,
the strayed I will bring back,
the injured I will bind up,
the sick I will heal,
but the sleek and the strong I will destroy,
shepherding them rightly.

- Ezekiel 34:16

In the Old Testament, kingship has an interesting beginning. Before his anointing, Saul was sent to look for the lost donkeys of his father. Along almost the same vein, before his anointing, David was a shepherd, tending sheep. There is something about these humble beginnings that reveal the heart of God as the One who seeks out the lost, brings back the strayed, binds up the injured, and heals the sick.

Thus, although God is acknowledged as Supreme Ruler, God also presents Himself as a down-to-earth and compassionate Shepherd.

God knows and tells us that we have a need for Him as our Shepherd. It is important to ask ourselves today, "Do we know and acknowledge our need for God as Shepherd?"

In what ways have I been lost? I need God to find me.
In what ways have I strayed? I need God to bring me back?
In what ways have I been injured? I need God to bind me up?
And in what ways have I been sick? I need God to heal me.
How have I grown sleek and strong that resulted from selfishness and indifference from the plight of others? I need to leave behind this behavior unless I do not mind being destroyed by God.

In Jesus, God will come as the Shepherd-King. He will come to see whether his mercy has brought us to be found, brought us back to the fold, bound us up, and healed us. Jesus will come to judge whether we have learned from his ways: becoming down-to-earth and compassionate like him.

Then the king will say to those on his right,
'Come, you who are blessed by my Father.
Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.
For I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
a stranger and you welcomed me,
naked and you clothed me,
ill and you cared for me,
in prison and you visited me.'

- Matthew 25:34-36

It is not enough just to know Jesus. Jesus reveals himself to us that we may be transformed by him, become like him!

That Jesus is our Shepherd-King, then we are his sheep and people. Our behavior must reflect his authority over us daily. That we allow Jesus to do good to us, then we have learned from him how we must do good to one another and to others.

Do I live my life according to the teachings of Jesus (as opposed to a political platform, particularly if such platform deliberately opposes the teachings of Jesus)? Do I live more as an earthly citizen or already in view of my citizenship in heaven?

Keep your parish staff in your daily prayers.

Today, I invite you and your loved ones, to renew your faith and allegiance in Jesus our King, and to entrust to him all your life, and not just the religious part of it.

Christ, my King and Savior,
I renew in my allegiance to Your Kingship.
I pray for the grace to place You above the powers of this world. O Prince of Peace, may Your reign be complete in my life and in the life of the world. Christ, my King, please answer my petitions if they be in accordance with Your Holy Will: Mention your intentions here.
As I reflect on Your second, glorious coming and the judgment of all humankind, I beg You to show me mercy and give me the grace to become a great saint. I pray that not only will I spend eternity with You but that You may use me – a sinner – to bring others into Your Kingdom for Your glory.
Christ the King, may Your Kingdom come! Amen.
